From the Desk of Fr. Brian

Dear Parishioners:

The Christmas season is now over and, surprisingly, the Lenten season is almost upon us. Easter is very early this year (April 5th) so that means Ash Wednesday (February 18th) and Lent are very early this year as well. However, for a very brief period, we enter into "ordinary" time. Visually, this can be seen by the wearing of green vestments. Green is a sign of hope.

As the Church liturgical documents tell us:

> Besides the times of the year that have their own distinctive, there remains in the yearly cycle of thirty-three or thirty-four weeks in which no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated (as is true in the Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter seasons), but, rather, the mystery of Christ itself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays. This period is known as Ordinary Time (Universal Norms, paragraph 43).

While we tend to focus on the "special" seasons of the Church year (Advent/Christmas, Lent and Easter), we must not overlook or minimize the importance of the Sunday celebration of the Mass throughout the year. Ordinary time is actually rather extraordinary! Why? Because every Sunday the Catholic community comes together to remind the world that Jesus was raised from the dead on the first day of the week and that God's creation came to completion.

Sunday after Sunday, we come to Mass to be challenged by the Word of God and then nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion. Just think, every Sunday (in fact, every day when we celebrate Mass) I, as the priest, ask Christ to come down from heaven and be with us in Holy Communion. That is an extraordinary event!

As you may already know, this church year, we will be reading largely from the Gospel of Luke; last year we largely read from the Gospel of Matthew. Matthew was written about 70 AD, about 10 years after the writing of the Gospel of Mark. Matthew wrote to a community in which the majority of readers were Jewish converts to Christianity.

St. Jerome said, "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ." Let us grow in our knowledge of Christ by growing in our knowledge of the Gospel of St. Matthew.

Remember: Together, we can do something beautiful for God.

In Christ,

Msgr. Brian McNamara

Fr. Brian

By reason of His immensity, God is present everywhere; but there are two places where He dwells in a particular manner. One is in the highest heavens, where He is present by that glory which He communicates to the blessed; the other is on earth—within the humble soul that loves Him. - St. Alphonsus Liguori

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION
PRESERVING RELIGIOUS LIBERTY FOR ALL

Freedom of Religion and Catholic Schools
Annual Catholic Schools Week:
January 25th to 31st

Catholic schools are a critical part of the exercise of religious freedom. The right to choose a faith based educational environment for our children is protected by the first amendment's free exercise clause. In addition to the establishment clause which prohibits government from choosing one religion over another, the free exercise clause asserts that Congress shall not prohibit the free exercise of religion.

Parents are the primary teachers and essential moral educators of their children. That responsibility, however, is increasingly burdened by our culture's descent into secularism where the individual's own satisfaction and happiness is life's primary goal.

Parents can focus on their family as a constant example of Catholic love and support for each other, but our children have unmistakable daily encounters with a majority of fellow Americans whose own satisfaction is the deciding factor for their behavior.

Catholic school students spend impressionable years in the company of teachers and students whose faith guides their education in morals and academics. The Catholic school experience often results in better academic achievement, higher ethics standards and the choice of a career with the common good as a goal.

The freedom to teach our faith to Americans of all ages, as well as our own children, is one of Amerca's unique supports of religious liberty. Each of us can encourage and strengthen Catholic education by donating time and funding to our local Catholic school and by learning and supporting the school's activities and goals.

A good school provides a rounded education for the whole person. And a good Catholic school, over and above this, should help all its students become saints."

- Pope Benedict XVI

The final battle between the Lord and the reign of Satan will be about marriage and the family. Don't be afraid, because anyone who works for the sanctity of marriage and the family, will always be fought and opposed in every way, because this is the decisive issue. However, Our Lady has already crushed its head.

How important it is, therefore, that every child coming into the world be welcomed by the warmth of a family! External comforts do not matter, Jesus was born in a stable and had a manger as His first cradle but the love of Mary and of Joseph made Him feel the tenderness and beauty of being loved. Children need this, the love of their father and mother. It is this that gives them security and, as they grow, enables them to discover the meaning of life. The Holy Family of Nazareth went through many trials …. Yet, trusting in divine Providence, they found their stability and guaranteed Jesus a serene childhood and a sound upbringing.

—Pope Benedict XVI

Reflections on the Sunday Scriptures

January 25, 2026
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Readings: Isaiah 8: 23 - 9:3; 1 Corinthians 21: 10-13
Matthew 4: 12-23; 4: 12-17

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Focus Questions:

1. What inspires you to follow Jesus?
2. What distracts you from following Jesus?
3. The disciples' decision to follow Jesus caused them to change their way of life. How has your faith in Jesus changed your way of life?

Children and Family Reflection:

There are many stories about Jesus in the gospels. Which one is your favorite? Why?

O my God, teach me to be generous, to serve you as you deserve to be served, to give without counting the cost, to fight without fear of being wounded, to work without seeking rest, and to spend myself without expecting any reward, but the knowledge that I am doing your holy will.
